

REQUESTS REGARDING POSITIONS ON BILLS

0515

(Revised 1996)

HEADQUARTERS

Positions on bills must clear the department and the Resources Agency and be approved by the Governor's Office legislative unit before they are released to anyone. The department's Office of Legislation will notify those concerned when positions have been approved.

Inquiries from other departments, commissions, boards, and lobbyists regarding legislative policy or CDF's position on a bill should be referred to the Office of Legislation. At no time should legislative proposals, bill analyses, or enrolled bill reports be given to anyone! All such documents are confidential communication between the department and the Governor's Office.
