

RESTRICTIONS

(September 1991)

0604

While the department recognizes the need for flexibility regarding information activities, some restrictions apply:

- Any material (video, radio, written, or oral) prepared as part of information activities must pertain to the department's mission, programs, and employee activities.
- CAL FIRE personnel cannot comment on personalities, divulge confidential information, or render personal opinions on policy pertaining to CAL FIRE or allied agencies.
- Personnel shall not discuss politically sensitive issues, unless authorized to do so, and should refer these matters to the region or unit chief or program manager.
