REPORTING VIOLATIONS

0917.1

(No.20 September 2006)

Allegations of conduct that are believed to violate this Acceptable Use Policy should be reported in writing to the CAL FIRE Information Security Officer in the CAL FIRE Program Accountability Unit. The individual filing the report shall not discuss with or provide copies of the allegations to others.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

0917.2

(No.20 September 2006)

For purposes of dealing with outside entities and partners, CAL FIRE makes no guarantee that the functions or services provided by or through IT resources will be error free or without defect. Users are advised that loss of data or interruptions of service may occur. CAL FIRE is not responsible for the accuracy or quality of the information obtained through or stored on IT resources. By using CAL FIRE IT resources, users indicate agreement that they will not hold CAL FIRE responsible for any loss or damage suffered as a result of using IT resources including, but not limited to, loss of data, interruptions of service, and financial obligations arising through the unauthorized use of the system.

CAL FIRE reserves the right to withdraw the availability or upgrade any IT resource without notice and without penalty regardless of the terms of any agreement concerning use of the IT resources.
