

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION SYSTEM ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

2010

(No. 9 November 1998)

GENERAL

2011

(No. 9 February 2000)

Authors throughout the departmental ranks, administrative information officers, administrative information coordinators, and the F.I.R.M. Unit all contribute to the success of the system.

Success of the system may be defined by the adherence to information definition statement set out in Section 2003, as well as:

- identification of other program units that may have an interest in the information to be released.
- consistency with existing policies and procedures in that program area.
- compatibility with policies and procedures of programs that may be affected by the information released.
