

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3151

(Sept. 1999)

Major Capital Outlay projects will typically be administered by the Department of General Services, Real Estate Services Division, Project Management Branch, (PMB). Minor Capital Outlay projects are designed by Technical Services unless the Chief of Technical Services delegates their design to the regional engineer.

Support funded minor alteration projects must be designed and approved by the region engineer. Certain minor projects will require the approval of Technical Services, Sacramento.

All projects that involve structural modification of buildings are to be approved by the Senior Civil Engineer in Sacramento Technical Services.
