

SALE OF SURPLUS LANDS

3354

(Sept 1999)

If DGS has determined that no state agencies need use of the surplus land, it may sell or otherwise dispose of the land, pursuant to Legislative authorization, upon such terms and conditions and subject to such reservations and exceptions as DGS may deem to be in the best interest of the state. DGS reports to the Legislature annually, regarding each parcel of land authorized to be sold, and supplies the following information:

A description and other identification of the property.

The date of authorization.

For each parcel sold after the preceding report, the date of sale and price received, or the value of the land received in exchange.

For each parcel not sold or otherwise disposed of, the present status.
