

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

3364

(Sept 1999)

If proper application forms are not available locally, request copies and instructions from Sacramento Headquarters, Technical Services.

The application, together with Environmental Information and Checklist forms properly filled out, must be forwarded to Sacramento Headquarters, Technical Services, for processing.

After the Water Rights Board's review and analysis of the application, and when all protests have been reconciled, a permit is issued.

After being informed that construction is complete, the Water Rights Board will dispatch an examiner to examine the diversionary improvements. If found satisfactory and conforming in all aspects to the application statements, a license is issued, confirming right to the water.
