

A small breach near the door frame permits reaching inside to unlock the door.

When breaching a masonry wall, make the hole diamond shaped and large enough to permit passage of fully equipped personnel.