

NOTICE OF MEETINGS

5423

(No. 3 June 1991)

Each meeting of a DTAC at which official business is to be conducted will be a public meeting (PRC § 4537). The secretary will give advance notice of such a meeting to the director, other region chiefs in the forest district, interested public agencies, trade association representatives, conservation groups and organizations known to have special interest in environmental matters, and others who have asked to be notified.

The committee secretary will maintain, as part of the committee records, mailing lists of individuals and groups who should receive meeting notices and publicity about committee meetings.
