

RECORDS AND STATISTICAL REPORTS

5479

(No. 3 June 1991)

The Director's office will keep permanent records of all documents for each TCP. These records will be maintained until conversion is completed or until the possibility of law enforcement action for forest practice violations has passed. The records in the Director's office may be sent to record storage when the conversion is completed.

The Director will prepare a statistical report of timberland conversions for each calendar year for inclusion in the annual forest practice report.
