(May 1988)

When recorded, return to:
California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that each timberland owner or his/her agent, pursuant to provisions of Public Resources Code Section 4608, et seq., may become liable for the costs of corrective action taken by the Department of Forestry to secure compliance with specified forest practice rule requirements.

This notice is applicable to the acres on which timber operations have been or are being conducted under Timber Harvesting Plan number _____ on that certain property in _____ County, known as the _____ property, currently owned by same, and further described as follows:
(Complete legal description)

Comprising _____ acres, more or less.

Said lands are subject to the requirements of Division 4, Part 2, Chapter 8 of the California Public Resources Code, otherwise known as the Forest Practice Act, and to the Forest Practice Rules for the _____ Forest District found in Division 1.5, Chapter 4 of Title 14, of California Code of Regulations, more specifically set forth as follows:
(Here briefly describe the nature of the anticipated corrective work - examples below)

1. Effective waterbreaks must be constructed on tractor skid trails and temporary logging roads in accordance with 14 CCR 955.1.
2. Soil and slash must be removed from streams in accordance with 14 CCR 956.2. No tractors or other powered mechanical equipment may be used within the stream protection zone in accordance with 14 CCR 956.1.

If, pursuant to procedures established under law and following appropriate notice and time to accomplish corrective work, it becomes necessary for the Department of Forestry to incur expenses to accomplish the stated corrective work, such expenses shall become a lien upon the property upon which such action is taken. Further information relative to this matter may be obtained from the region chief, California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, at _____, telephone _____, or from the Directory of Forestry, 1416 Ninth Street, Sacramento, CA 95814.
