

CYA CONSERVATION CAMP PROGRAM

6203

(May 2003)

The Conservation Camp Program is part of an ongoing effort by the California Youth Authority in conjunction with the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF), to use the resources at its disposal in a cost effective manner to serve the interests of the citizens of the State.

CYA MISSION GOALS

6203.1

(May 2003)

OBJECTIVE STATEMENT:

The objectives of the CYA Conservation Camp Program are:

- Promote the conservation of natural and human resources within the limits established by law, California Code of Regulations (CCR), Title 15, Division 4, and the operating procedures of cooperating agencies. The Conservation Camp Program shall cooperate with other State and local agencies in a joint operation.
- Rehabilitate and train wards in minimum custody facilities to perform meaningful work in a structured program.
- Provide CDF with effective, well trained fire crews capable of rapid statewide response to a wide variety of emergency assignments.
- Provide cooperating agencies a workforce for conservation and community work project labor.
