Training Center Division Chief

Wards will arrive at conservation camps, with a minimum required sixty-four (64) hours of basic Fire Crew Firefighter training. (See Handbook 4200.) The CDF training program at the pre-camp training centers provides physically fit wards with basic skills in fire suppression, and ensures wards have successfully completed their training program. Wards who have not had the basic Fire Crew Firefighter training course (64-hours) within the last 12 months shall be required to take the course again at one of the three pre-camp training centers. Wards who have successfully completed the course within the last 12 months will be given a challenge exam.
