

HAZARDOUS DEVICE TECHNICIAN EQUIPMENT

9432

(February 2002)

Hazardous Device Technicians shall be provided with the proper safety equipment to be used in the performance of their duties. This equipment will comply with the minimum requirements of NABSCAB as outlined in Special Technician Bulletin 87-4.

If additional equipment is required for handling a particular situation, i.e. real time x-ray equipment, bomb trailers, additional personnel, etc., the area will be secured and further render safe activities will be delayed until the necessary equipment or personnel become available. Other agencies, including military or allied agency Explosive Ordinance Disposal (EOD) Units, should be contacted for supporting equipment and personnel.
